

Monday, Feb. 21, Noon (virtual event)

Sharing in the Struggle

Learn about the shared struggles of Black and Latinx Americans.

Tuesday, Feb. 22 (in person events)

Rise & Grind

Find balance in the work by treating yourself to a coffee break on us or by stretching out the good vibes.

- 7-10 a.m. at Black Coffee (1417 Vaughn Blvd., Fort Worth, TX 76105)
- 4-5 p.m. in BLUU Ballroom (Mat provided, social distancing and masks observed)

Wednesday, Feb. 23, 6 p.m. (virtual event)

Reckoning with Remembrance & Reconciliation

Keynote speaker Rev. Wheeler Parker Jr. will reflect on his experiences as the last living witness to his cousin Emmett Till's abduction that galvanized the movement in 1955.

Thursday, Feb. 24, Noon (virtual event)

Hustling Hard

Join TCU student-athletes and head coaches from Football, Cross Country, Women's Basketball and Soccer to learn more about reconciliation as a team sport.

Friday, Feb. 25, Noon (in person event)

Walk with Us: TCU Heritage Trail

Join us in a leisurely 1-hour stroll and learn more about our many shades of purple on campus. (Meet at Frog Fountain)

Join us for RRI Week! For the most current information, visit tcu.edu/RRI.

